

APPG on Smoking and Health AGM – 31 March 2022

Parliamentarians present:

- Baroness Finlay of Llandaff
- Lord Young of Cookham
- Lord Faulkner of Worcester
- Liz Twist MP
- Lord Trees

Also present:

Deborah Arnott (ASH), John Waldron (ASH), Amy Murgatroyd (ASH), Harriet Shoosmith (Parliamentary assistant to Bob Blackman MP), Rebecca Hyslova (Parliamentary assistant to John Lamont MP), Joe Barker (Parliamentary assistant to Ben Bradley MP)

Election of Officers

The election of the following Officers was unanimous. Those who were unable to attend confirmed their preference via email in advance.

- Bob Blackman MP was elected as Chairman.

The following were elected as Vice-Chairs:

- Alex Cunningham MP
- Lord Rennard
- Lord Faulkner of Worcester
- Baroness Finlay of Llandaff
- Mary Foy MP
- Lord Young of Cookham

Secretariat

It was agreed that Action on Smoking and Health (ASH) will continue to provide the secretariat for the APPG.

Other business

The formal business of the AGM was followed by a brief update on the Health and Care Bill and the independent review by Dr Javed Khan OBE into the government's ambition to make England smokefree by 2030.